FRIDAY'S USUAL POOR CARD

Fair Grounds Racing Nothing Gaudy, but Draws Well.

Translate and Turner a Winning Combination in the Chief Race —It Springs a Surprise.

NEW ORLEANS, La., February 10.—A prompt reflection of the superior weather and track conditions of today was seen in the generous patronage at the Fair Grounds this afternoon, despite an ordinary racing offering that afforded opportunity for second and third raters to earn their keep. It was an offday card, with a purse race at a mile and seventy yards the feature. In it some second raters met, with Translate a slight favorite over Baigneur and Ballot Mark. Translate was ridden by Clarence Turner, it marking the first mount he has had in weeks and his entry on the track to the post was the signal for a marked demonstration. There was some doubt about Turner's fitness to ride a hard race after his lengthy layoff, but this he disproved, for he sent Translate into the lead soon after the start and continued in the van for the entire race, though at times he had to rouse his mount up. Baigneur finished second by virtue of the poor ride that Romanelli gave Ballot Mark. Baigneur might have reversed the decision with the winner but for his tardy beginning. He was far back immediately after beginning on even terms with the others, but saved much ground by staying close to the inner rail. Translate's victory was popular, judging from the volume of applause for rider and horse when Turner brought him back to weigh in.

The band of maiden three-year-olds and over that started proceedings were all inferior to Bristow, which won easily from Archive and Blossom House. Romulus was a supposed good thing here, but was always far back and made a sorry showing.

The second race found It suddenly improved, and, due to Pool's rough tactics in almost throwing several competitors, the Californian won easily, Dare outstaying Deep Sinker for second place. The chief sufferer from Pool's rough actions was Hermis Kemble, which failed to get a part of the purse.

Some good sprinters started in the third race, with Jock Scot and Winneconne the favorites. Both were led home by Ace of Aces, which finished gamely and got up in the last ten yards to outstay Winneconne.

Tantalus, running for the first time in the colors of his new owner, G. W. Glick, wound up the winner of the fourth race over Exhorter and Ace, the joint favorites.

CLOSE CALL FOR TRICKSTER II.

The locally owned Trickster II., an outstanding favorite, had a close call from defeat in the sixth race, but managed to outstay Phelan, to win by a neck, with Nordeck in third place.

Another locally owned horse, Zone d'Armee, led for the entire way in the closing dash and beat the weakly ridden Corson home, which in turn got up in the last few strides to outstay Ollie Wood.

Jockey Jake Heupel was an arrival today from Havana, where he has been riding all winter. He plans to visit his home in Covington, Ky., and will ride on the Maryland circuit during the coming racing season.

Racing secretary Joe McLennan today received license blanks for trainers and jockeys from the Jockey Club. There was quite a demand for them from the horsemen and riders here.

New Orleans owners gathered their share of the spoils at the Fair Grounds today, two of them winning purses. Trickster II. scored in the sixth race for W. D. Bernhardt, while Zone d'Armee won the seventh for the Southland Stable, of which F. P. Letellier is the moving spirit. Incidentally the latter was ridden by a Cresent City jockey, J. D. Mooney.

Jockey L. Gregory accepted the first mount of his career today, it being Attorney Muir in the sixth race. This lad is a younger brother of jockey H. Gregory, who is taking an enforced vacation at the present time.

John C. Ferriss grew tired of seeing Nordeck in his stable, so he disposed of him to C. W. Chappell. He started for the first time for his new owner today and finished third in the sixth race.

R. A. Smith may send Irish Kiss to Tijuana to contest in the $20,000 Coffroth Handicap, to be run there late in the spring, but he has not fully made up his mind to this effect. The horse is training well again, and all depends upon how he fares in this respect for the remainder of the Fair Grounds meeting.

Great Gull broke down during the running of the sixth race today. The old horse has been in a bad way for some time and at a recent auction sale in the paddock he brought only $100. Mrs. S. C. Denham purchased him.

After being out of the saddle for several days, suffering from a heavy cold, jockey Lawrence Lyke was back on the job today. His layoff did not help him any from a standpoint of weight, as he scaled 118 pounds today.

DUETTISTE VICTORIOUS IN ENGLAND

Duettiste made a notable debut in English steeplechasing at the Gatwick right-hand course of the London district Wednesday by winning his first race. The only news was by a cablegram to Joseph E. Widener, his owner, from H. Escott, who trains the horse. His son, A. Escott, rode Duettiste in the race, which was the $1,000 Brook Steeplechase of three miles, for five-year-olds and over, with penalties and allowances. Aged horses to carry 171 pounds, with three-pound winning penalty and seven pounds allowances for not winning a steeplechase since 1920, making the American gelding's weight 164 pounds.

There were fifteen entries in the race. Among them Wavetree, Southampton, Shaun Spadah, Ardour, Mask Man and Snaefell, all Grand National candidates. Our English correspondent failed to send the news of Duettiste's victory.

J. E. MADDEN'S WONDERFUL RECORD

HORSES BRED AT HIS FAMOUS HAMBURG PLACE WIN 1,595 RACES DURING LAST FIVE YEARS --- HARRY PAYNE WHITNEY AND AUGUST BELMONT ALSO PROMINENT AMONG OUR AMERICAN BREEDERS

As a breeder of successful thoroughbred race horses, John E. Madden stands pre-eminent in this country. During the last five years horses bred at his famous Hamburg Place in Kentucky have won 1,595 races over the various tracks of this country, Canada, Cuba and Mexico. It is a wonderful record, unapproached by any other breeder. Last year was Mr. Madden's greatest, horses bred by him winning 424 races. In 1920 they won 313; in 1919, 311; in 1918, 213, and in 1917, 334. Success has not come to Mr. Madden in a haphazzard way—nothing was left to chance or luck. A keen knowledge of the best bloodlines and then proper blending is in great measure the keynote of his success.

Harry Payne Whitney is another American breeder who has met with unqualified success. From 1917 to 1921 horses bred at his noted establishments in Kentucky and New Jersey have won 846 races. Unlike Mr. Madden, who sells the greater part of the output of Hamburg Place yearly, Mr. Whitney races under his own colors the majority of the horses bred by him, only discarding those that fail to come up to the high standard expected of the Whitney racers. Many of the stars of the last few years are included among the Whitney winners.

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, has a total of 732 races won during the last five years by horses bred at his noted Nursery Stud in Kentucky. One of the greatest horses of the century, Man o' War, was bred at the Nursery Stud, and but for the fortunes of war, which led Mr. Belmont to dispose of his yearlings in 1919 and 1920, something he was not wont to do prior to that time, he would have had not only the pleasure and pride of breeding, but also of racing, that celebrated horse. However, Mr. Belmont returns to the races this year, and it is a promising band of royally-bred young horses that will carry his colors. They and their relatives in other stables can be depended upon to uphold the reputation of Nursery Stud and add considerably in races won to the total now to the credit of their breeder.

H. T. Oxnard, A. B. Spreckels, A. B. Hancock, R. T. Wilson, C. W. Moore, E. R. Bradley and John Sanford are among other breeders who have seen year after year horses bred at their farms win a goodly share of the turf prizes. The climax of E. R. Bradley's career as a breeder came last year when two horses he bred at his Idle Hour Farm—Behave Yourself and Black Servant—finished first and second in the Kentucky Derby.

In the list of our leading breeders of the last five years appears the name of the late James B. Haggin, at one time the owner of the largest breeding establishment in the world, which is now fast disappearing and will soon be but a memory of past greatness.

How heavy were the importations of foreign-bred horses to this country during and after the war may be readily perceived when it is pointed out that horses bred in England won 1,330 races in this country during the last five years, while horses bred in France won 724 races during the same period. Many of these horses are now in the stud and, when mated with the solid old American lines, are bound to further enhance the value of the American thoroughbred.

The records of the leading American breeders for the last five years are here presented, the totals shown representing the races won by horses bred by them:

MASTERFUL TRAINING IN IRELAND

English training reports have it that Foxhall P. Keene's American gelding Masterful, a Grand National Steeplechase entry, assigned 140 pounds for the race, is training in Ireland. The "bhoys" there know the game well and perhaps, despite his dismal career in his native land, Masterful may be made over by Irish training and schooling methods.

EASY WAY TO RAISE REVENUE

Whenever the Australasian commonwealths need money they go after the racing clubs. Recently Victoria was short $350,000 and got most of it by taxing betting tickets in a clumsy way. New Zealand needed $1,000,000, so it put an additional 2½ per cent tax on totalizator receipts.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

C. C. Van Meter has thirteen horses at Churchill Downs ready for early spring training.

Of England's lady owners of race horses Mrs. R. L. Burnley did better than any other last season, Yutoi having won her four races of the total value of $21,890.

Lucien Lyne, the American jockey who rides for the Spanish King, has come through his recent operation nicely and is with the king's horses at San Sebastian, Spain.

The Bengal government is introducing an amusement tax bill providing for a levy of 4 per cent on all moneys paid into the race course totalizator and of 2½ per cent on all money paid out by bookmakers.

THE LEOPARD'S FAST RACE

Defeats Louis A. Narrowly in Havana's Chief Offering.

Close Finish in Contest Won by Moon Winks—Favorites Prove Elusive.

HAVANA, Cuba, February 10.—J. Lowe's five-year-old Von Tromp horse, The Leopard, showed a good performance in the feature race at Oriental Park this afternoon when he beat Louis A. by a length in a driving finish. It was a fast run race and The Leopard was forced to run close to the track record time to win. The speedy End Man set a dazzling pace for three-quarters of a mile and, when he tired, The Leopard took command only to be ridden hard at the end to withstand the fast but belated rush of Louis A., the favorite. Eleanor S. was third, a half length in advance of End Man. Louis A.'s performance was disappointing. He is a horse of great speed, but seems unable to win.

Clear skies and a fast track prevailed today and some interesting racing was enjoyed by a crowd of good proportions for a Friday. Favorites fared badly, not a first choice winning during the afternoon.

The first race brought out a field of eleven non-winners at the meeting. H. E. Davis furnished the winner in Golden Red, which beat the favorite, Wreckless, by three parts of a length in a driving finish. Prospero's Baby made the pace until straightened out in the homestretch, where he quit.

R. L. Baker's colors, which have been seen in front frequently at the meeting, were carried to victory in the second race when Moon Winks won in a driving finish by half a length from Mary D. The winner dashed into a long lead in the early stages, but tired badly in the stretch and barely lasted long enough to win. It was a remarkably close finish between the first five horses, the smallest of margins separating Mary D., American Legion and Coscorron. Foul Weather, the favorite, in the race, with Penman up, after forcing the pace until after passing the sixteenh post quit badly.

An upset came with the running of the third, when Ultimo beat the favorite, Wayward Lady, by a neck. Penman, who rode the latter, messed up things a bit when he attempted to come through an impossible opening and after passing the three-eighths post was blocked and forced to take up his mount and go on the outside. These tactics beat her. Wayward Lady was wearing down the tiring leader at the end.

Walter Turnbow came from a long way back to win the fourth, a dash of a mile and fifty yards for which Stanley was the even money favorite. Stanley broke through the barrier while at the post and raced for one-quarter mile before Wilson got him under control. In the running of the race he showed plenty of speed and led until the last quarter, where he quit. Walter Turnbow was a distant follower for the first five-eighths, but, when the leaders bore out entering the homestretch, he slipped through next to the inside rail and easily drew away at the end.

Marcella Boy made all the pace in the last race and, in a driving finish, beat Dolly C. by a length.

General Manager Frank J. Bruen anticipates that the greatest crowd of the meeting will turn out Sunday to witness the decision of the $10,000 Grand National Handicap. Those who are conversant with the drawing power of a stake of this kind are of the same mind. Extensve preparations are being made to handle the enormous crowd and interest is growing as the day of the running approaches. Speculation is rife as to the probable outcome.

$10,000 A DAY RACING TAX

First Move in Counter-Offensive to Preserve Racing in Maryland.

STATE HOUSE, ANNAPOLIS, Md., February 10.—The counter-offensive of the race tracks of Maryland in their struggle against the reformers is now under way. It is understood here that the racing lines are forming for a desperate resistance against the efforts to put them out of business.

The first move—at least the first overt move—in the counter-offensive was the introduction of a bill in the senate providing for the raising of the per diem fee paid by each of the four one-mile racks to $10,000, with the provision that a proportion of the money so paid shall be turned over to the state association of agriculture fairs.

Senator Frick introduced the bill today. It amends the law creating the State Racing Commission, providing that instead of the $6,000 paid the state each racing day there shall be paid $10,000 and of the gross amount received $100,000 is to be distributed among the various fair associations. It follows the lines indorsed by the Agriculture Fair Asosciations at a recent meeting in Washington.

In the judgment of some of those who have examined the Frick bill it would deprive the commission of authority to have the accounts of the racing associations audited. As construed here the bill would also repeal the clause in the Burke law providing that the four one-mile tracks pay to the state, in addition to the per diem fee, a tax of 15 per cent on their net profits.

The racing interests have been cheered by the action of the Kentucgy legislature in snowing under the anti-racing bill proposed for that state. They are indulging in the hope that as Kentucky has gone, so will Maryland go. Their intelligence department, if they may be said to have one, is reported to have been doing its best to assemble data; and that now, information having been supplied, the time for action is at hand.

It appears that this action is taking its first form in the present action of the bill just mentioned, which it is hoped can be supported as an alternative to the anti-gambling bills, which are in both branches of the assembly, having been introduced in the house by delegate Hall and in the senate by Senator Byrn.

GALLAHER BROS. NEW RIDER

Kenucky Turfmen Real Purchasers of Contract on Jockey Noble.

LEXINGTON, Ky., February 10.—Jockey E. Noble, whose contract was purchased by Sewell Combs from Charles Howell, is to ride for Gallaher Bros., it was announced this afternoon by A. B. Gallaher. "We have been at a loss for a good rider for some time," said he, "and had been watching the work of the youngsters at the winter tracks. Through Sewell Combs we got into communication with starter Harry Morrissey at Tijuana and he recommended Noble, expressing the opinion that he is the best riding prospect at the border track. We got the letter last Saturday and looking into the Daily Racing Form of that date we saw that Noble had ridden three winners on the previous Thursday, and that he was putting them over pretty regularly. The price asked by Howell for the contract was $2,500. We had Combs offer $2,000. It was accepted and we forwarded the money. Today we were advised by Morrissey that the contract is on its way to Lexington.

"We have asked Morrissey to place the boy with some good man for another month and then send him on to Lexington. It is about twelve days since we began our quest for a rider and Noble has won from one to three races every day during that time. His contract is for five years and it has about four years to run. We are enthusiastic about the lad."

Gallaher Brothers have a bright exercise boy by the name of Harvey, who hails from Hamilton, Lang's home town in Canada. They got him last summer and he is getting his education along with the two-year-olds, which he helped to break last summer.

SPECIAL RACE AT TIJUANA TODAY

The East will meet the West in a special race today at the Tijuana race track, the first event of its kind ever held at the border course in the six years of its operation. Representing the East will be Motor Cop, which by virtue of his three straight victories is one of the most talked of thoroughbreds in the West, with Lantados, the four-year-old son of Cruzados, from the breeding farm of Miss Anita Baldwin, at Los Angeles, to uphold the honors of the West.

A heated discussion between Jim Curl, trainer of Lantados, and C. B. Irwin, who owns Motor Cop, as to which is the better sprinter, led to the special race. The Tijuana Jockey Club has offered a purse of $1,000, winner take all. However, it is said that this will only be a small portion of the money at stake, for Curl and Irwin have posted a deposit for a side bet of large proportions, and the wagering on the sparkling event is expected to be heavy. The distance will be five-eighths and Motor Cop, to be ridden by jockey Pablo Martinez, will carry 140 pounds. Lantados will have only 110 pounds on his back and will be ridden by jockey R. Harrington.

Lantados, which recently scored his maiden victory, is practically untried, but has shown such tremendous speed in his morning work that horsemen consider him one of the best prospects seen in years. Only recently he showed a five-eighths trial gallop in 1:00⅘ under restraint.

$2 mutuels paid, John Jr., $11.60 straight, $7.60 place, $4.00 show; Little Florence, $7.00 place, $3.20 show; Little Romper, $2.60 show.

Equivalent booking odds—John Jr., 480 to 100 straight, 280 to 100 place, 100 to 100 show; Little Florence, 250 to 100 place, 60 to 100 show; Little Romper, 30 to 100 show.

Winner—B. g, by Marta Santa—Maude Fealy, by Ben Strome (trained by V. Mannale; bred by Mr. Walter S. Payne).

Went to post at 4:29. At post 5 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. JOHN JR. began with a rush and, showing the most speed, set the pace all the way, but had to be hard ridden in the last fifty yards. LITTLE FLORENCE steadily improved her position and finished rapidly overhauling the winner. LITTLE ROMPER tired after racing in closest, but unavailing, pursuit of the winner to the last eighth. DON DODGE made a game finish. HORACE LERCH closed a gap.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Galway Gate, an imported English horse now six years old, by Prospector—Star of Eve, won the Prince of Wales' Cup at Calcutta, G. Bellhouse, the French jockey, being the rider.

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, is reported fully recovered from the bruises sustained when his horse stumbled and fell while he was hunting recently in South Carolina.

James Irall, one of the leading English bookmakers who operated in the Tattersall ring as "Ike White," died at Torquay ten days ago. He was noted for freak bets, such as $500 to a cigar, and lost some of them.

Mustard Seed, the Peter Quince—Alsike, by Ben Brush, three-year-old in trainer Goldsborough's stable at Gravesend, has developed into a picture giant. The colt must weigh 1,300 pounds. Mustard Seed, which was sore of feet all last year, was fast and courageous always and is likely to be a sharp factor in the spring short-distance racing.

In New South Wales, Australia, 460 race courses of various kinds were licensed last year, an increase of thirty-six over 1920. Every settlement almost has its race track and the general colonial opinion is that there are too many.

The racing Indian Prince Aga Khan, for whom William Duke trains, and who recently bought Sam Hildreth's old training place at Maisons-Laffitte, is making a hurried trip to India, so as to be back for the French flat racing season.

Enfilade's sire, Ramrod, which died a few days ago at the French National Stud, was one of the old-fashioned bred staying kind, nineteen years old and by Carbine, the Australian stayer and champion, from Esk, by Esterling, herself one of the cut and come again kind.

Captain Jefferson Davis Cohn's tenure of the Haras de Chamant, where he maintains his French breeding establishment, has been confirmed by a high French court. A lower court had declared his lease on the property at an end on the petition of the lessor, Baroness de Forest, but the higher court reversed the verdict.

NEWS ABOUT FRENCH RACING

Prince Aga Khan Improving Hildreth's Old Training Quarters.

Maisons-Laffitte's Growing Popularity — Course's Picturesque Setting Saved by American.

PARIS, France, January 25.—Owing to the distance from Paris and the principal race courses around the capital, Chantilly as a training center seems to be less attractive to trainers than ever this year and there have been several removals to Maisons-Laffitte. The convenience of the latter place is so marked that more than two-thirds of the French horses in training are at present located there. Several blocks of stables have been erected, or are in course of erection, and houses are almost impossible to get. It is in Maisons-Laffitte that the establishment of the Aga Khan is situated and W. Duke, the trainer and manager of this newcomer to the French turf, is having extensive improvements made, so that his stable will be thoroughly up to date. It is the place which Sam Hildreth used when here and cost the prince some $75,000. Being only about a stone's throw from the race course, it will be especially convenient, as Duke has a stable full of two-year-olds, and more races for juveniles take place at Maisons-Laffitte than anywhere else in France.

The demand for more living accommodations at Maisons-Laffitte has recently given rise to a controversy between the municipal authorities and various building contractors. These latter applied for power to put up some villas along the delightful rising ground between the chateau of Maisons-Laffitte and the river Seine, which would have completely robbed the historic castle of its magnificent view, and after much legal controversy it was found that a sum of $25,000 would save the site from the hands of unsentimental builders.

FRANK GOULD TO THE RESCUE.

The raising of this sum seemed at first a difficult proposition for the municipal council, but the American owner, Mr. Frank Jay Gould, whose residence is in the adjoining park, near the race course, has offered to find $12,500 if the other half is forthcoming in a stated time. There is every prospect of the conditions beng fulfilled and the beauty of the chateau landscape being preserved.

The current issue of the "Bulletin des Steeplechases" contains elaborate details of the budget for 1922. It had been unofficially announced that a substantial reduction in stake money would be necessary, but few were prepared for the drastic cutting down which has been decided upon. From $1,468,515, which represented last year's figures, the amount has fallen to $872.235 for the present year. Auteuil, which, of course, is the biggest source of revenue to the Societe des Steeplechases, has been granted $662,965, about a million and a half less than last year. The Grand Steeplechase is worth only $32,000, and the Grand Hurdle Race $16,000. The Grand Steeplechase of 1921 was worth $40,000 and the Grand Hurdle Race $30,000. There is a long list of minor prizes which have been reduced in value, and the program for the opening fixture February 18 shows that the scheme of reduction has been drastically applied all around.

Hollier Larousse, a French breeder, has purchased the English stallion Rowland, by Picton—Galeta, by Ladas. Rowland raced ten times, finishing first or second in seven of his engagements. Among his victories was the Goodwood Plate. He is a half-brother to Amadis, which was unbeaten as a three-year-old and which is the sire of Foxhall Keene's Puss in Boots colt, Topboot, now a two-year-old.

H. Eugene Leigh, who recently visited the United States in search of jockeys to ride in France, has resumed charge of his extensive training establishment at Maisons-Laffitte.

The Duc Decazes has finally completed arrangements and signed a contract with the American jockey Walter Miller, who will ride the Duc's horses both on the flat and over the jumps during the coming season in France.

MAX HIRSCH BUYS MADDEN COLT

Max Hirsch has purchased the two-year-old brown colt by Zeus—Sans Gene, by Rock Sand, from John E. Madden. Mr. Hirsch has also taken over the engagements of the youngster, which include the Hopeful, Grand Union Hotel and other rich juvenile stakes at Saratoga.

DOUBLE FOR J. A. PARSON

His Colors to the Fore at Tijuana—After Contract on Jockey Huntamer.

TIJUANA, Mexico, February 10.—J. A. Parson was much in the limelight at Tijuana yesterday. In the main race his Huron II. and Sister Susie finished first and second and in the following race Buckhorn II. carried his colors to victory.

Strange as it may seem, the Parson entry in the Montebello Handicap, at five and one-half furlongs, was without enthusiastic support, although they paraded to the post the favorites. However, General Agramonte and Doctor Corbett were well backed and came in for much attention. The race was a sort of a gift for Parson, as his horses held first and second place throughout the contest. Doctor Corbett made a challenge rounding the far turn, but tried to come through a small opening next to the inside rail, where he was impeded by Sister Susie. Meanwhile Huron II. was setting a sizzling pace and held to his task to the finish, although his stable companion pressed him hard nearing the end.

Following right on the heels of this triumph Parson's colors were again in evidence when his Buckhorn II. dashed home first in the mile and a sixteenth race, which was the sixth on the card. Jockey Noble, who piloted the winner, rode him hard throughout, and the son of Buckhorn responded gamely and at the finish held a clear lead over Happy Valley and American Maid.

The closest finish of the day came in the opening dash, at five and a half furlongs, in which Mike Dixon, ridden by the veteran jockey Gross, got up to win by inches from Sadie D. and Kimono. The latter was probably best. At the rise of the barrier she dwelt and in consequence she was away flat footed. However, Kimono quickly struck her full stride and, rushing up to the leaders, at one stage of the race showed in front. The early efforts to make up the lost ground proved her downfall, for she tired when put to the whip.

The old campaigner Kenward found a soft spot in the second race, showing a particular fondness for the soft going, winning pulled up to a canter by six lengths.

NAN McKINNEY'S HOLLOW VICTORY.

Nan McKinney made every post a winning one in the three-year-old race. Her victory, like Kenward's, was a hollow one and at the end she held an advantage of ten lengths.

Jockeys E. Noble and J. Huntamer divided the saddle honors of the day between them. Each rode two winners.

Entry clerk Sam Rothert had a busy time of it in the third race, as many claims were registered. Three horses changed hands. Yermak went to William ("Red") Walker; Booneville back to his erstwhile owner, J. A. Parson, who in turn lost Commander to C. B. Irwin—$800 was the consideration in both cases. In the sixth race H. T. Palmer added Happy Valley to his rapidly enlarging string, taking that plater from J. Arvin for $900.

Between races Sunnyland and Regal Lodge worked a mile in preparation for the $10,000 Baja California Handicap, to be run Sunday. Working together they ran the distance in 1:46⅘, with Regal Lodge showing the most impressive work. The western champion Be Frank, with jockey E. Taylor in the saddle, was sent three-quarters in 1:19. He pulled up in good condition, and if he does not develop lameness is expected to be a starter in Sunday's feature.

It was learned today that a well-known eastern turfman had asked Arthur Brent, who holds the contract on jockey J. Huntamer, to set a price on the coveted document, but Brent replied that the services of the Tijuana crack jockey is not for sale. As reported exclusively in these columns some time back it is the intention of Brent to take Huntamer to England, where he will be seen in the saddle next summer. Brent is an Englishman and is sanguine that he can find much saddle work for his jockey on the other side of the water.

A carload of horses which left New Orleans Saturday night arrived here this morning. The star of the shipment was Mulciber, which is entered in some of the rich long-distance stakes yet to be decided. The entire aggregation shipped well, car sickness being unknown among them.

Archie Johnson, son of U. S. Senator Hiram Johnson from California, inspected a number of thoroughbreds this morning with the prospects of purchasing them for gentleman racing in the northern part of the state. A series of Saturday matinees are now being held at Del Monte, Cal., and Mr. Johnson expects to acquire a small stable to be raced at that point and will ride his own horses, being an expert horseman.

Jockey Parke lost his applentice allowance Tuesday, having ridden his first winner on February 7, 1921, when he rode Bee's Wing to victory at Tijuana.

GROWTH OF ENGLISH RACING

Figures for 1921 Show Healthy Increase in Purses and Horses Engaged.

The English Annual Racing Calendar, which contains the statistical record of the year 1921 on the British turf, shows in its tabulations a healthy growth both in purse distribution and in the number of horses engaged during the year.

The total number of horses competing during 1921 established a new English record with 4,394, as compared with 4,095 in 1920, which also constituted a record. Stake values in 1921 for England were $3,028,665, as compared with $2,995,180 in the previous year; for Ireland $465,175, as compared with $422.220, and for Scotland $118,015, as compared with $122,650. Scotland, it will be noted, is the only division of the United Kingdom to show a decrease. The English and Irish totals represent new records.

A total of 1,565 races were run in Great Britain last year and 469 in Ireland, although several meetings were abandoned because of the industrial crisis in the midst of the racing season. In England $1,333,295 was won in handicaps, $265,075 in selling races and $1,430,295 in weight-for-age races.

Figures on two-year-old racing in Great Britain last year show that there were 380 juvenile races at between five-eighths and three-quarters mile; eighty-four between three-quarters and a mile and seventeen at a mile or over. In Ireland there were 100 juvenile races at between five-eighths and three-quarters mile; nineteen between three-quarters and one mile and only three at a mile or over.

STAKE RACES IN THE ARGENTINE

Tiepolo, three-year-old son of Irigoyen—Melisande, won the Prix General Alvear, a $10,000 stake run at the Palermo track, near Buenos Aires, December 18. At the finish he led Yesquero by three lengths. Caupi, the only other starter, was the same distance behind Yesquero.

The Prix Arenales, another $10,000 stake, resulted in an easy victory for the favorite Calderon by two lengths and half over Pronostico. Calderon is by Pipiolo—Czarina, by Simonside, and was foaled in 1917.

The $10,000 Prix Clausura, run at Palermo, December 25, resulted in a victory for the favorite Citoyen, which led Calderon by a length at the finish. Citoyen was foaled in 1918 and is by Amsterdam—Corral, by Ben Strome—Korea.

Cantudor, three-year-old son of Val d'Or, scored his maiden victory in the $4,500 Prix Moloch. Ma Fifille, a three-year-old filly, by Mehara—Cocoa, by Simonside, won the $4,500 Prix Colibri, also the first victory of her career.

DISCUSS IRISH STABLE BOYS' WAGES

Recently the trainers at Irish turf headquarters, The Curragh, met and considered stable wages. They then issued notice that February 1 and after that date stable hands boarding themselves would be paid $7 weekly, those boarding in stables $3 weekly, with bonuses of $10 to the boy in charge of each winner.

Irish rumors still persist that the new government will for taxation purposes encourage the gathering of starting price bookmakers, permit Sunday racing, adopt the pari-mutuel system and encourage Irish breeders to abandon Doncaster and Newmarket for yearlings sales at The Curragh.

THE GUARANTEE SYSTEM
has published a book which shews in detail results of this System for past two years, which should prove interesting to turf followers inasmuch as it won on every track in U. S. and Canada during 1920-1921. Won at New Orleans week ending Feb. 4th $1,210.35, Tijuana $96.00. Play at or away from the track; ONE BEST or the entire card. Results moderate but positive. If you expect fabulous returns don't inquire. An INVESTMENT, not a speculation. Our GUARANTEE: Must win its cost in three days or money refunded. Is this "fair enough"? The Guarantee System is copyrighted and fully protected and is on file in U. S. Patent Office and with this publication. Write for the free book. Address
